

e-Newsletter

SUMMER 2014, ISSUE 4

Have your say, attend in person or online.

Keeping you regularly up to date

The EBEA AGM is to be held on 14 June 2014, 1pm–2pm At the University of Staffordshire, Stoke-on-Trent Campus, College Road, Stoke-on-Trent, ST4 2DE. More details can be found on our website in the 'about us' section.

We are offering members the opportunity to attend in person or join in the AGM via webinar software. To attend remotely, please email Claire at office@ebea.org.uk for unique log in details.

WANTED

Active members,
interested in becoming a trustee.

For an informal discussion or further details, please get in touch with the office 01273 467542
office@ebea.org.uk

Bank of England Conference,
1st July 2014

After generous support from the Bank of England we are able to offer exceptional conference rates.

You can't afford to miss it!

Webinar – Wednesday 2nd July 4.30-5.30pm
Adrian Lyons - HMI, National Lead for Economics, Business and Enterprise.

We are offering members a free webinar titled 'Economics and Business Education - Good, but could be better?'

To attend the webinar online, you will need to initially register your interest by emailing Claire at office@ebea.org.uk Unique login details will be sent to you nearer the time. Places are limited and booking fast, so register your interest now.

The conference is now available at £50 for members and £115 for non-members (including part year membership). We also have a very limited number of 6th form student places at £30.

The one-day conference considers the current stance of UK economic policies and the outlook for the economy, including businesses. The keynote speakers are from the Monetary Policy Committee, the Department of Business, Innovation and Skills and the London School of Economics.

The sessions will provide perspectives on the nature of current economic problems, the policy responses available and the implications for the teaching of Economics and Business Studies. For information and to book the event please visit the website.

