SUMMER 2014, ISSUE 6

Keeping you regularly up to date

Enjoy the summer break and join us in the new academic year for more up to date news and events.

During 2014 we have aimed to listen to our membership more and make it easier to keep you up to date with news and events.

We hope you have seen the difference and value the news we bring to you.

To make sure we meet your needs and tap into all the talent within our membership, we will be sending out an email survey shortly. I do hope you can spare the time to give us your thoughts so we can shape the plans for 2014/15 academic year. In the meantime, enjoy the sun and see you in September!

Reminder: Calling all A level teachers – October events to compare and contrast new syllabuses.

EBEA are hosting member only conferences that will provide teachers with the opportunity to compare and contrast new A level syllabus criteria from the main exam boards. The morning will be focused on Economics and the afternoon on Business. Over lunch there will be time to network informally with other delegates and the exam boards. The sessions will provide perspectives on the nature of syllabus changes and the implications for the teaching of Economics and Business.

North event (Stoke) 7th October; South Event (London) 10th October

The events will run from 9.15 – 12.15 & 1.15 – 4.15 with lunch included. The cost will be £100 for a ½ day and £150 for a full day. For more information and an agenda visit the website for more details.

Have you registered for Tycoon in Schools? Tycoon in Schools is a free national enterprise competition headed by Peter Jones CBE, entrepreneur and star of Dragons' Den, which gives young people the chance to run their own business. Check out their website for details
